

Jay Bradbury
AT&T

Current position: District Manager, AT&T Law & Government Affairs

Employed in the telecommunications industry for more than 33 years with AT&T, including 14 years with its then subsidiary Southern Bell.

Mr. Bradbury started in 1970 as a Chief Operator with Southern Bell's Operator Services Department in Raleigh, North Carolina.

1972-1987: various positions in Operator Services Departments of Southern Bell (1972-1984) and AT&T (1984-1987). Responsible for the planning, engineering, implementation and administration of personnel, processes and network equipment used to provide local and toll operator services and directory assistance services in North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee and Mississippi.

1987: transferred to AT&T's External Affairs Department in Atlanta, Georgia, with the responsibility for managing AT&T's needs for access network interfaces with South Central Bell, including the resolution of operational performance, financial and policy issues

1989-1992: responsible for AT&T's relationships and contract negotiations with independent telephone companies within the South Central Bell States and Florida.

1992-1993: Regulatory Affairs Manager in the Law and Government Affairs Division, responsible for the analysis of industry proposals before regulatory bodies in the South Central Bell states to determine their impact on AT&T's ability to meet its customers' needs with services that are competitively priced and profitable.

1993: transferred to the Access Management Organization within AT&T's Network Services Division as a Manager - Access Provisioning and Maintenance, with responsibility for ongoing management of processes and structures in place with Southwestern Bell to assure that its access provisioning and maintenance performance met the needs of AT&T's strategic business units.

1995: Manager in the Local Infrastructure and Access Management Organization, responsible for negotiating and implementing operational agreements with incumbent local exchange carriers needed to support AT&T's entry into the local telecommunications market.

1998: Transferred to the Law and Government Affairs Organization in June, with the same responsibilities as previously, and with one of the most important objectives was to ensure that BellSouth provided AT&T with efficient and nondiscriminatory access to BellSouth's Operations Support Systems (OSS) throughout BellSouth's nine-state region to support AT&T's market entry.

2002: responsibilities expanded to provide continuing advice to AT&T decision makers concerning industry-wide OSS, network, and operations policy, implementation, and performance impacts to AT&T's business plans.

Testimony: testified on behalf of AT&T in numerous state public utility commission proceedings regarding various network and related issues, including arbitrations, performance measures proceedings, Section 271 proceedings, quality of service proceedings, and Triennial Review Order proceedings in all nine states in the BellSouth region; also have testified on behalf of AT&T in proceedings before the FCC regarding BellSouth's applications to provide in-region interLATA long distance service.

Mr. Bradbury is a graduate of The Citadel